1. The underground movement is active in the wooden area of Zambrow (R53/F87), Stalowa Wola (R51/Q70), and Bialystok districts. Police and security forces fear for their lives, for hardly a day passes without an assault by partisans.
2. In 1952 an underground group attacked the UB (Security Police) building in the Zambrow district and, after cutting the telephone line, killed everyone in the building. Army reinforcements, tanks and aircraft, were sent to the district and inflicted heavy losses on the partisan group.
